According to PMI, top executives are increasingly reliant on Project Managers to improve business performance. Properly trained project managers also command hefty salaries, even during a recession!

SRE is offering this class in the Eastern Panhandle to prevent our working professionals from having to commute to take this valuable training!

Our commitment to the advancement of Project Management and economic growth within our community has prompted us to provide an $500 discount on our PMP Exam Prep Boot Camp (regular price $2499). If you refer a friend for the same class we will deduct an additional $100 from your training costs!

You will receive the PMI required 35 hours of training. Schedule today to guarantee a seat.

*What's Included (Standard Discounted
Price $1999):*

- 35 contact hours of instruction
- PMP Certification Manual
- PMP Exam Prep Quick Reference Guide
- Breakfast and Snacks every day
- Lunch on final day of class
